OBJECTIVES

With over 16 years of outstanding customer service and satisfaction, advocating equanimity and dignity while promoting conscientiousness and ethics through character cultivation are my personal policies. These personal policies facilitate fundamental connections with the folks involved in all my endeavors. All of my clients and coworkers after working with me can attest that they are not just a number, but an invaluable asset. Unfortunately, due to an accident, I am unable to continue my career in Emergency Medical Services. Fortunately I am still able to continue to do what I love, bringing positivity into people's lives!
